

HVER OG ÉN / EACH AND EVERY ONE

Tina Maria Nielsen

21/3– 19/4 2014

Charlotte Fogh Gallery har den store glæde at præsentere udstillingen "Hver og én" af billedhuggeren Tina Maria Nielsen. Udstillingen er kunstnerens første separatudstilling i galleriet og viser nye skulpturer i bronze og voks samt en række frottageværker.

Tina Maria Nielsens værker tager afsæt i de hverdagsobjekter, vi omgiver os med. Skulpturerne laves af ting fra hendes atelier eller lige udenfor, og den store verden bliver synlig gennem stikdåser, stakke af bøger, en flosset træstolpe, et beskåret æbletræ, eller resterne af en frugtkasse som hun støber i 1:1 i bronze eller voks. I udstillingen "Hver og én" koncentrerer værkerne sig om det særegne overfor det almene. Det enkelte som det forholder sig til helheden.

Central for udstillingen er skulpturen "Line of Descent", der i 2013 var udstillet på Brandts Kunsthall. Værket er en 3 meter lang bronzeafstøbning af et æbletræ, der organisk løfter sig fra gulvet, fra stamme til de friske knopper på de yderste kviste. Værket danner afsæt for skulpturserien "Vildskud", der består af afskårne trægrenne med et lodret voksende skud: Vildskuddene der symboliserer det irrationelle – en overskydende og ufrugtbar energi. Værkets hårde materiale står i kontrast til de organiske vildskud, der på grund af værkets struktur bliver meget levende. Træets organiske struktur sættes videre i spil i et andet hovedværk "Atlas", der er en frottage af kunstnerens skrivebord. Træets langsomme årringe i bordets hærgede finerede overflade fremmanes gennem grafittens aftryk på papiret - en kortlægning af kunstnerens konkrete arbejdsproces ved bordet og ligesom bronzeafstøbningerne, en indirekte oversættelse af virkeligheden under berøring. I forlængelse af disse markante værker, har kunstneren til udstillingen desuden skabt nye værker af æbler støbt i voks og serien "Where we meet", der består af tynde lag voks på papir samt skulpturen "Basic parts". En frugtkasse hvis splittede enkeltdeler er støbt i bronze og nu står som et anagram, hvor nye betydninger kan opstå.

Tina Maria Nielsen er uddannet fra det Kongelige Danske Kunstakademi i 1999. Hun har siden slutningen af 1990'erne udstillet regelmæssigt i Danmark og internationalt på både gallerier og kunsthaller. Hun er tildelt flere arbejdslegater fra Statens Kunstfond og blev i 2007 tildelt det tre-årige arbejdslegat. Tina Maria Nielsen har senest haft en stor separatudstilling "Skin of Mine" på Brandts Kunsthall i 2013 samt udstillingen "I am You are" på Gallery Thomas Wallner, Simris, Sverige, "Beginings and Ends", Kunstverein Buchholz Nordheide og "Looking for somewhere", Effearte Gallery i Milano, Italien

Charlotte Fogh Gallery has the pleasure to present the exhibition "Each and every one" of the sculptor Tina Maria Nielsen. The exhibition is the artist's first solo exhibition in the gallery showing new sculptures in bronze, wax and frottage pieces.

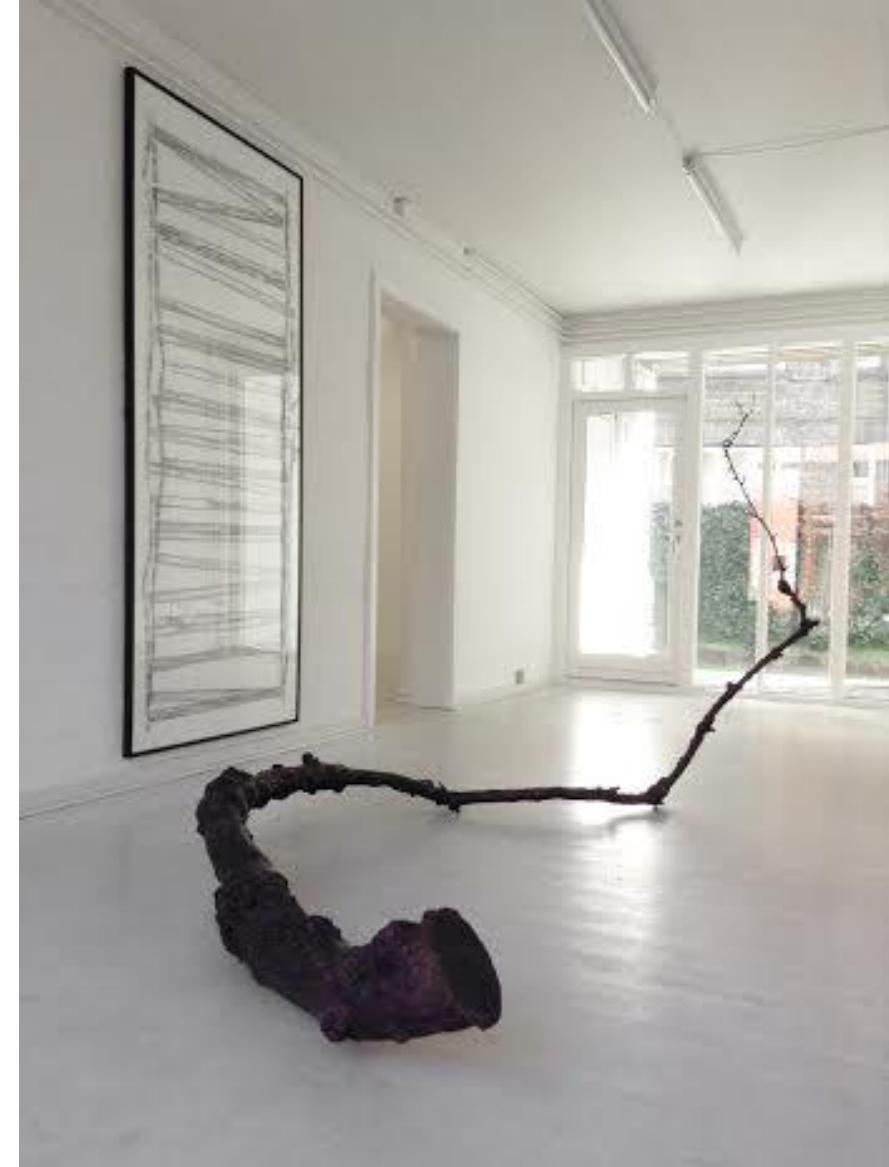

Tina Maria Nielsen's works are based on the everyday objects that surround us. The sculptures are made of things from her studio or just outside, and the world at large becomes visible through sockets, stacks of books, a frayed wooden stud, a cut apple tree, or the remnants of a fruit crate she creates in 1:1 in bronze or wax. In the exhibition "Each and every one" focuses change from the specificity towards the general.

Central to the exhibition is the sculpture "Line of Descent", which in 2013 was exhibited at Kunsthallen Brandts. The work is a three meter bronze cast of an apple tree that rises organically from the floor, from tribe to the fresh buds on the outer twigs. The work forms the basis for the sculpture series "Vildskud" (Tree sucker), consisting of cut tree limbs with a vertical growing branch: Tree suckers are symbolizing the irrational – an excess and infertile energy. The tree's organic structure continues in another major work "Atlas" which is a frottage of the artist's desk. The tree's slow growth rings in the torn veneered surface of the table are conjured through the graphite prints on paper – a survey of the artist's specific workflow at the table and, like bronze cast, an indirect translation of reality in touch. Following these striking works, the artist has also created new works of apples cast in wax and the paperwork series "Where we meet" consisting of thin layers of paper dipped in wax and the sculpture "Basic Parts": A fruit box of fractured parts are cast in bronze and now stands as an anagram, where new meanings can arise.

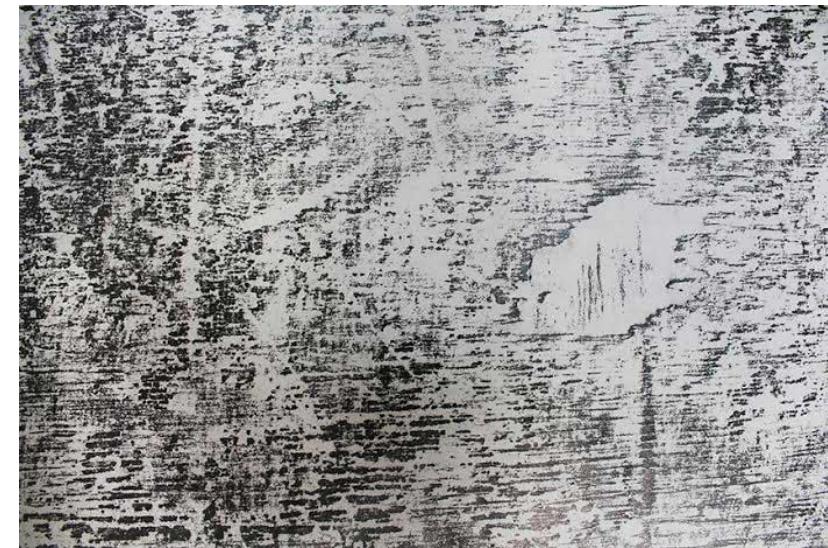

Tina Maria Nielsen graduated from the Royal Danish Academy of Fine Arts in 1999. Since the late 1990s she has exhibited regularly in Denmark and internationally in both galleries and art centres. She has been awarded several grants from the Danish Arts Foundation and in 2007 was awarded the three – year grant. Tina Maria Nielsen has recently had a major solo exhibition "Skin of Mine" at Brandt's Kunsthall in 2013 and the exhibition "I am You are" at Gallery Thomas Wallner, Simris, Sweden, "Beginings and Ends", Kunstverein Buchholz Nordheide and "Looking for somewhere" Effearte Gallery in Milan, Italy.
